

Prayer

-- Les Dennis

Prayer is not always easy to understand. We know from Scripture that God always answers our prayers, but sometimes it just does not feel like He is answering them. After many years of experiencing various results from prayer, there are a few conclusions that seem to apply.

Sometimes God answers our prayers with a “yes” that comes quickly; other times God answers prayer with a “yes” that seems to take a long time to arrive. But the real test of faith comes when He answers in other ways. Sometimes God says “no” to our prayers. When He says “no”, it means looking at Romans 8:28 and recognizing that He says it for our own good.

After many years I have come to the conclusion that real faith is the faith that recognizes that God knows what is best for us even when we do not immediately agree. It is knowing that, whatever God sends our way, He is looking out for us and loves us.

© 2012 by Rev. Les Dennis, B.A., D.D. Permission is given to copy this article, if it is copied in its entirety and distributed without charge.

Prayer

-- Les Dennis

Prayer is not always easy to understand. We know from Scripture that God always answers our prayers, but sometimes it just does not feel like He is answering them. After many years of experiencing various results from prayer, there are a few conclusions that seem to apply.

Sometimes God answers our prayers with a “yes” that comes quickly; other times God answers prayer with a “yes” that seems to take a long time to arrive. But the real test of faith comes when He answers in other ways. Sometimes God says “no” to our prayers. When He says “no”, it means looking at Romans 8:28 and recognizing that He says it for our own good.

After many years I have come to the conclusion that real faith is the faith that recognizes that God knows what is best for us even when we do not immediately agree. It is knowing that, whatever God sends our way, He is looking out for us and loves us.

© 2012 by Rev. Les Dennis, B.A., D.D. Permission is given to copy this article, if it is copied in its entirety and distributed without charge.